

PHOTOS SUBMITTED BY RODNEY SCHLOSSER

FRIENDS OF TRAIL: Honoree Sandy Greyson, third from right, was joined at the recent dedication by Friends of Preston Ridge Trail, including Friends officials Rodney Schlosser, left, Rod Scales and president Cori Pratt, plus Dallas Councilman Ron Natinsky and Max Wells, former mayor pro tem.

Greyson honored at Preston Ridge Trail

BENCH MARK: Above, Sandy Greyson, right, former Dallas City Council member, and Councilman Ron Natinsky try a new bench along the Preston Ridge Trail in North Dallas dedicated to Greyson for her support of trail development. More than 100 people attended the Dec. 10 event near Meandering Way and Arapaho Road.

TRAIL BLAZERS: Right, Maureen Dickey, Dallas County commissioner, attended the dedication for Sandy Greyson. The county funded original construction of the five-mile cement trail.

